2019 Washington Museum Association Conference
All Stories are Told Here

The Washington Museum Association (WaMA) offers an annual conference for peer-to-peer learning, networking, and idea exchange. The 2019 WaMA Conference takes place at the Northwest Museum of Arts & Culture in Spokane, WA, June 19 – 21, 2019. WaMA is currently inviting proposals for presentations, workshops/interactive sessions, or panels. We also welcome student poster sessions, during which students may share projects or research of interest to museum professionals.

Do you have an initiative you would like to share or an issue you'd like to explore with colleagues? Topics for sessions may include: community engagement, collaboration, exhibit development, strategic planning, collections stewardship, facilities and safety, technology, cultural tourism, interpretation, museum management and leadership, and/or fundraising.

To propose a session, complete the information below and send or email to:

Elizabeth P. Stewart, WaMA Vice President / estewart@rentonwa.gov

Proposals may also be submitted through our website:
